PROPOSALS

By Joseph M. Sanderson,

For Publishing by Subscription,

A Biography of the Signers OF THE Declaration of Independence,

Accompanied with Plates.

To which will be annexed a History of the Proceedings of Congress, during the passage of the Law, and the Declaration itself, with the fac simile Engravings of the Signatures.

By JOHN SANDERSON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

When we consider the personal qualities of the statesmen whose names are affixed to the Declaration of Independence, the perilous occasion which demanded the exercise of their wisdom and deliberation, and the influence of their councils on the interests of mankind, we must acknowledge that very rarely a more imposing spectacle has been offered to the world, and we shall seek in vain in the annals of nations, for an event more worthy of commemoration, and of being cherished forever in the hearts of a grateful and generous people. The love of independence is interwoven with the frame and constitution of the human mind. It is almost the first sentiment that animates the infant's features in the cradle; and amongst all the actions and enterprizes of man, none has awaked into activity a greater exertion of the virtuous energies of his nature, none has excited a greater warmth of veneration, and has more imperious claims upon our gratitude, than resistance to tyranny and political aggression.

In all republican states the first tribute of genius has been paid to the patriot or the hero who has promoted the cause of liberty and maintained the independence and dignity of man. The animated canvas and breathing marble have rescued his features from the grasp of death, and the pen of the historian has inscribed the achievements to the imperishable records of fame. It would indeed be no favorable prognostic of the perpetuity of our republican institutions to discover an insensibility to the obligations we owe the memory of the illustrious patrons of American freedom. They have raised us, by their magnanimity, from the arbitrary dominion of a foreign power, to the distinguished elevation of a sovereign and independent people; they have asserted and maintained the imprescriptible rights of humanity by the "mutual pledge of their pledge of their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors;" and, as long as virtue holds her empire in the hearts of their successors, the example of these generous benefactors will not be lost to the world; their names will not pass away nor be forgotten, or their glorious deeds be confounded in the common and casual transaction of life.—Ingratitude is a vice that in nations, as well as individuals, indicates the last degree of degeneracy and corruption; it is a vice that implies the absence of every virtue; it was in the age of Caligula that the name of the Scipios was proscribed, that the state of Brutus brought death on its possessor.

"The glory of our ancestors is the light of posterity," and the homage of the living cannot be offered to the merits of the illustrious dead with an effectual or sterile admiration. Great and splendid actions will seldom be achieved by men who have humble or ordinary objects in prospect. It is by contemplating the life and character of those who are marked out from the multitude by their eminent qualities, that we become emulous of their virtues and their renown. The trophies of Miltiades interrupted the sleeps of Themistocles; and Theseus, hearing the exploits of Hercules, was fired with his spirit, and became the successful rival of his fame. The rude savage of the desert listens with rapture to the deeds of his ancestors, and hangs around his hut the emblems of his father's valour.

More need not be said to enforce the utility of the publication we have undertaken, and which we now submit to the patronage of our fellow-citizens, with a hope, that from the liberality of their encouragement, we shall be able to present it to the public worthy of their approbation. We must depend for the illustration of many of the characters of our biography, upon the generosity of their surviving relatives and friends, to furnish us with whatever interesting materials may be in their possession; for which, with our grateful acknowledgments, we promise a copy of the entire work as a compensation.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be published in numbers or half volumes of 200 pages, octavo, and contained in ten numbers. To the first will be prefixed an appropriate frontispiece—and the work will be commenced with the declaration of independence, with engraved fac similes of the signatures, and a compendious detail of the proceedings of congress, during the passage of the law. Each of the lives, unless when it is impracticable, will be preceded by a likeness of the person, engraved by the best artists in the United States.

II. It will be printed on fine paper, made expressly for the purpose, and delivered to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per number, payable on delivery.

From the Meadville Messenger, October 29.

UNCOMMON DARKNESS.

On Saturday the 23d inst. in Meadville and probably throughout Western Pennsylvania, was an uncommon darkness, which came on between nine and ten o'clock in the morning. The clouds moving from the southward, much resembling those of the dark day, so called, which happened in the eastern states, May 19, 1780. About ten, the darkness subsided for a short time, but returned again before eleven. The darkness was such as to render it impracticable to attend to some kinds of domestic employments, and we have heard of several families who had recourse to candle-light. The darkness, however, was by no means so great as at the time of the dark day before mentioned; yet, having been unusual, it is thought proper to notice it.

Hillsborough, (Ohio,) Oct. 28.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBING THE MAIL.

On Sunday night, the 24th inst. the mail going westward, was stopped between this place and Williamsburg, by two men, who caught hold of the horse and proceeded to dislodge the rider, but the youth making a noble and spirited resistance by pounding them over the head with his trumpet, (the only weapon of defence in his possession) succeeded in making his escape from them with his mail; not, however, without receiving three or four stabs with a knife. We have not heard that any effort has been made to discover the perpetrators.

Newburyport, Nov. 5.

On Tuesday last we experienced an atmospheric occurrence very rare. The weather was extremely thick with dense clouds, and so dark in the middle of the day, that lighted candles were necessary in many rooms. A torrent of rain, attended with thunder and lightning, ensued, as severe as we have noticed during the season. And what is singular, the rain which fell was noticed by several persons to be coloured with some dingy substance. The lightning struck in several places; at Seabrook a cow was killed in the field of Mr. Levi Gove, a stack of hay set on fire and consumed, and in this town one of the poplar trees, which adorn our streets, was demolished. [Herald.

ITEMS OF NEWS.

The duties paid into the state treasury, by the seven commissioned auctioneers of Philadelphia, for the quarter ending on the 30th Sept. amount to 21,185 dolls. 88 cents.

The postmaster at Albany has given public notice, that after the 8th inst. no letter will be delivered at that office without being previously paid for. He says the pressure of the times have driven him to this measure.

The St. Louis Gazette of the 2d ult. says—Upwards of five thousand shares in the bank at Edwardsville have been forfeited for nonpayment of the instalments which have been called for.

The Pittsburg Gazette says—The branch bank of the United States in this place, and the other western offices have been authorised to purchase bills of exchange drawn on N. Orleans, having therefor checks at three months after date, on the bank at Philadelphia; the operation to commence at the season when produce is usually sent down the Mississippi. This arrangement will undoubtedly offer considerable facilities to the country below, and may circuitously benefit us by placing available funds in the hands of our debtors.

From official documents laid on the table of the house of commons, it appears that in the last seven years and a quarter, Great Britain, imported bread stuffs to the amount of 178,572,254 dollars 99 cents.

The beautiful vessel, Cleopatra's Barge, built for the late Mr. Crowninshield, and in which he made a Mediterranean tour is about to be erected into a steam packet, to go between Boston and Portland.

Carter, of boxing fame, has publicly challenged Donnelly, the Irish champion, to fight at fisticuffs for 500 guineas. The challenge was accepted, and the combat was to have taken place the first of this month.

At the late session of the general assembly of Rhode-Island, a resolve passed directing the members to wear crape for thirty days in testimony of respect for the memory of com. OLIVER H. PERRY, and a further resolve to request BENJAMIN HAZARD, esq. to compose and publish the biography of com. Perry. Mr. Hazard is an eminent lawyer in Newport, and said to be well qualified by his talents and intimate acquaintance with the gallant commodore, for the duty assigned him by this resolve.

We learn that the family of Mr. Corl, in the northern part of this town, have recently collected 130 bushels of acorns, than which, perhaps, no fruit or grain is better for fatting hogs. [Ulster N. Y. Philad.

There is a town in this state, about 40 miles from Portsmouth, containing a singular corporation, of about 5 or 600 inhabitants, in which there is neither minister, lawyer, doctor, or justice of the peace! Neither meeting-house or tavern; no shops, or but one grog-shop, and that has but little stock and less custom. The town is at present without either town-clerk or representative, and has no school going on. [N. H. Pat.

At the late show and fair at Ballstown Spa, a gentleman farmer, by the name of Simpson, had awarded to him nine premiums, for various productions from his farm.

Mr. Hall Bradbury, of Industry, (Me.) has raised this season, a squash, which girted 6 feet 3½ inches, and weighed 141 pounds! In Col. Vaughan's garden, Hallowell, a water-melon was raised, measuring 3 feet 4 inches, weighing 31½ lbs. On Mr. John Hesketh's farm, same place, an apple was raised weighing 18½ ounces, and measuring 14½ inches.

BUENOS AYRES.

It appears by the papers we have received from that city, that unusual exertions are making to prepare for defence against the meditated attacks of the Spanish. The Director, Rondeau, announces, that means are taking to remove the families and valuables from the city to the interior on the shortest warning, so as to present to the enemy a mass of bare walls defended by men who have every thing to lose. It appears that their civic troops are exercised every evening, and that all domestics from ten years old and upwards, without exempting those of monasteries and convents, are forced into battalions and companies. They have a force of 15,000 men, equal to regular troops, in the city alone, and when we consider that they have the advantage of fortifications, and the assistance of a still greater force from the country, it is evident that the resistance will be desperate. They have little to fear from invasion, but the dangers with which they believe themselves threatened, has no doubt an admirable effect in calling forth the spirit of the country, and in producing harmony and union. The ex-director, Puerrydon, acts as a colonel in the lines, and is actively engaged in military preparations.

The session of the Circuit Court of the United States for Maryland district, commenced in this city on Monday, before Judge Duval alone.

USURY CASES.

The court of appeals, now sitting, had argued before it, last week, the case of Greenhow and Harris, on a question of usury. The case of Taylor and Bruce has not been decided. It is supposed that these interesting cases will be decided, after the 20th instant, when the court meets again, after an intermediate vacation of a few days.

The questions growing out of the usury laws begin to increase in number and in interest. How far particular transactions in the disposition of certain notes, stock, &c. are vitiated and cancelled by usury, begin to be the themes of general discussion in this city and neighborhood. New cases are growing upon us.

Executors begin to refuse the payment of notes or endorsements which notes they believe to have been shaved.

A drawer to save his endorsers as far as he can (when his property falls short of his aggregate debts) has given formal notice to his endorsers on certain paper, charged to be usurious, not to pay it at maturity.

One of the banks has decided that such notice is not enough to save the endorser from a protest.

Two injunctions have been granted by two chancellors, enjoining another bank not to protest the endorser under such circumstances.

These matters are coram judice; but if they were not, we have no wish to discuss them.—We think they ought not to be canvassed in a newspaper. We merely state the points as they arise, for the information of our legal readers.

The decisions in the court of appeals, when made, we shall attempt to publish.

FROM IRELAND.

The schr Superb, Capt. Weems, of Baltimore, arrived at this port last evening, in 40 days from Belfast, whence she sailed on the 22d of September. Capt. W. brought no papers, and her letters were not delivered last evening. The only information we have obtained is of the unfortunate loss of the ship Rebecca Coffin, Capt. Livingston, of this port, received by one of her owners in a letter from a gentleman on board, dated

"Donaghadee, (Ireland) Sept. 18.

"We sailed from Greenock on Sunday morning, 12th September, and attempted to get out the North Channel, but it blew so hard from North, that after reaching Ennishahul, we bore away for the South Channel. 15th, at 4 P. M. while running 8 knots, and carried on by the tide about 3 more, we struck the ground, and dragged on about 5 or 10 minutes before a rock brought us up.—You may conceive what consternation we felt, but withal there was a degree of composure, which I could not have expected.—In the morning, we found ourselves surrounded with rocks and within half a mile of the land. The anchors were sent out, and every attempt made to get the ship off—she once floated, but only to get on another rock. On the 16th, she had not been injured so much as to leak, but on the succeeding night a gale came on, and she beat so hard as to fill the succeeding tide. Her cargo is mostly got out, but in a thoroughly soaked state; whether she will be got off or not is very doubtful. I am happy to add that no lives have been lost. The place where the ship lies is about 5 miles south from Donaghadee. The farmers in the neighborhood have treated us with great kindness."

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Our Boston correspondent has obligingly forwarded to us the London Morning Chronicle of the 2d of October.

By this paper, we learn that the election for lord mayor had been warmly carried on for three days, and was not yet closed. On the 3d day, the polling, it is said, continued with great activity, and at three o'clock, the gross numbers were declared as follows:

For Alderman Bridges	1,474
Alderman Thorpe	1,276
Alderman Wood	1,270

Loud disapprobation and applause continued for some time.

Price Blackwood to be his flag lieut. And commodose sir Thomas Hardy, bart. to be commander in chief on the coast of South America, in the room of com. Bowles, returning to England from ill health. Lieut. T. Bourchier to be his flag lieut.

The Paris Moniteur of the 28th of Sept. contains an ordinance, repealing one of the 3d of August, 1815, which suspended the importation of grain. Mr. Farquhar, governor general of the isle of France, has received from the king the insignia of a royal order of the legion of honor.

The same paper mentions, that a tumultuous scene took place, on the 27th at the royal museum. The croud, which was immense was beginning to depart, when a cry of fire was raised near the entrance of the grand gallery. The spectators in consequence hurried to get out, and several persons were thrown down and trampled upon, many ladies lost their shawls and reticules, a number of persons were wounded, but fortunately none of them seriously. The cry of fire is supposed to have been raised by thieves.

German papers of the 24th of September state, that the plan of a constitution for the kingdom of Wurtemburg, as digested by the royal commissioners and those of the states has been adopted by the assembly with some trivial modifications.

The German papers also mention, that the queen of Sweden, under her incognito title of Countess of Gothland, and her sister the ex-queen of Spain, under the title of Survilliers, have arrived at Brussels. The latter is to embark at Antwerp in the spring, to join her husband Joseph Bonaparte in the United States of America.

The emperor of Russia, it is said, was to be crowned king of Poland in the month of of October. The ceremony was to take place in the city of Warsaw.

A letter from Calcutta announces the loss of the ship Paragon, East Indiaman, on Sangor Sand. "The melancholy event," says the letter, happened on the night of the 24th March. The whole of the passengers and crew, with the exception of a Portuguese lascar, who refused to quit the wreck, have been saved by the Sophia pilot vessel. The officers and volunteers on board the Sophia, much to their credit, volunteered their services to assist in saving the passengers and crew. They brought the ladies, seven in number, and capt. Keene, who has been dangerously ill for some time, safely on shore. P. S. The vessel has sunk, and not an article of property has been saved. The captain is since dead."

The Monthly Agricultural Report, dated Middlesex, Sept. 20th says—"With respect to aggregate products, the present is the most plentiful season which has occurred for many years, not only in this country, but throughout Europe, in most of the corn countries of which there is also a considerable stock of old wheat. Our last year's wheat considerably excels in quality the growth of the present; and, in course, fetches more money in the market. Rain is greatly wanted in the north, and water for the cattle, which have been driven miles for that necessary; the pastures are burnt up, and the stubbles bare. In other parts, a more favorable report; but, in all, rain much wanted. Hops a great and fine crop, with a prospect of a still greater reduction of price. In Scotland, most of the crops a full average.

On the 10th of September, a most severe storm took place at Parma, which caused great disasters. The harvest of maize and of wine was totally destroyed. The cellars were inundated, and all the wine in them lost. There has not been so terrible a storm there within the memory of man.

Advices from Portugal mention, that, on the 16th of September, a government proclamation was issued, ordering a quarantine of 30 days on all vessels from Cadiz, Gibraltar, &c.

Yesterday Baron Bulow, Charge d'Affaires of his majesty the King of Prussia, jointly with Mr. N. M. Rothschild, and accompanied by Mr. Bonnet, Notary Public, cancelled and deposited in the bank of England, the amount of seventy-seven thousand five hundred pounds sterling, in special bonds of the late Prussian loan, negotiated by Mr. N. M. Rothschild, in London, being the other half of the sum fixed for the redemption of bonds in the first year, and also the saving of the interest on the 75.000l. redeemed on the 1st of April last.

Manchester Subscription.—Last night a meeting of the Inhabitants of the Borough, took place at the Three Tuns Inn, High-st. Sir R. Wilson in the chair, to adopt proper measures for carrying the resolutions at the late general meeting into effect. The chairman and several gentlemen addressed the meeting. It was finally agreed that subscriptions should be opened on as extensive a scale as possible, and the promotion of Parish meetings was strongly urged.

The Constitutionnel gives the following article, dated from Genoa, the 10th ult:

A Greek vessel has brought hither the important intelligence that the Ottoman Porte, convinced of the perfidious designs of Ali Pacha, of Janina, and indignant at finding itself compromised with Russia who had guaranteed, by the treaty of the 21st of March, 1800, the political existence of Parga under the jurisdiction of a Waiwode Chief of the four Cantons of the Terra-firma, has adopted a measure worthy of its policy and its good faith. By a Katischerif, emanating from the Grand Seignor, his sublime highness has commissioned Pacha Bey, a wealthy exile from Janina, and several of the principal Pachas of Romelia, to attack the rebel Ali. The vassals of Ali are invited to abandon him; the mosques and churches are placed under an interdict; and a reward is offered for his head. The Porte at the same time guarantees the safety of Ali's three sons, Mauctar, Veli, and Selik Pacha, provided they separate themselves from the cause of their father.

The outrages against the Jews at Copenhagen, according to accounts from thence, appear to have exceeded those committed in any of the German cities. One unfortunate Jew was forced out of his carriage and stoned in open day, and it is said he subsequently died of his wounds. The secretary of an advocate, who headed a mob that broke into a house of a Jew, and threw the furniture into the street, has been condemned to imprisonment and hard labor for life. Several Jewish families have quitted Hamburgh, in consequence of the persecution against them in that city, to establish themselves at Altona; others are preparing to proceed to America.

A private letter from Frankfort, in the Journal de Paris, gives nearly the same account of the result of the conferences at Carlsbad, particularly with regard to the intended tribunal at Mayence, as appeared recently in the Gazette de France, with the addition, that this tribunal will be subject to the influence of the great powers, that it is to try Sandt, and to decide upon the affair of the Prussian conspiracy. The new conferences at Vienna, were, it is now said, to commence yesterday, and it seems as if the wisest course the ministers there can pursue, will be to annul what has been agreed upon at Carlsbad.

A Dutch mail arrived last night, with papers to Wednesday last. The following are extracts:

Copenhagen, Sept. 21.—Towards nightfall are still seen numerous patroles, both of infantry and cavalry, parading the streets, in order to maintain tranquility. According to our newspapers the Jews have been exposed to insult at Hellerod, Nesland, Vordingberg, &c. as well as at Odenser. The persons who have been guilty of these excesses were almost every where of the very lowest class.—The police could not at first check these disorders, but the most respectable citizens united and restored tranquility. Next Sunday, as we learn, sermons are to be preached in all the churches of this country, recommending toleration among the Jews.

Schwerin, Sept. 17.—Here two placards have been posted up, threatening the Jews; but by adopting proper measures, all excesses have hitherto been prevented, strong patroles traverse the streets till late in the evening.

Hamburg, Sept. 23.—It is affirmed that his majesty the king of Saxony has granted to all persons of the Jewish religion, residing in his dominions, the right of citizens; though very urgent remonstrances against it have been presented by the shopkeepers. It is thought many rich Jewish families will thus be induced to settle in Saxony.

Hanover, Sept. 18.—His royal highness the Duke of Cumberland left this city yesterday to return to Berlin.

Boston, Nov. 2.

The rev. Pliney Fiske and the rev. Levi Parsons, missionaries to Jerusalem, sailed yesterday for Smyrna. Reverend Mr. Fiske preached his farewell sermon at the Old South on Sunday evening, to a very large and crowded audience. After which a collection was made, which amounted to 290 dollars 92 cts. The instructions to the missionaries were then read in public by Dr. Worcester, secretary of the committee.

Montreal, (Canada) Oct. 30.

By a letter, the authenticity of which we may depend upon, there appears to have been several shocks of an earthquake, felt at La-Chine on Thursday last. Our informant states that it happened about half past seven o'clock, in the evening. They were so violent as to move those lying in bed, and produce a trembling motion, and noise among the furniture in the room. We have not heard of any injury it has done; nor that it had been perceived in any other place.

DEDICATION OF THE TRAGEDY OF JUNIUS BRUTUS TO GENERAL WASHINGTON.

From Count Alfieri's Tragedies.

The name of him alone who gave liberty to America can sanction the tragedy of the deliverer of Rome. To you therefore, a citizen of singular fortune and desert, I dedicate Junius Brutus, without reciting the praises due to you; for they are all included in your name. So brief a mention of you ought not to be deemed indirect adulation—I am personally acquainted with you; and divided, as we are, by the immense ocean, we have but one motive immediately in common,—the love of our country. Truly happy are you who have established a fame such as yours, on a basis firm and eternal,—the love of your country proved by your actions!—For myself, I have abandoned my native soil, purely for the sake of writing with ardor on the subject of liberty. By such a sacrifice, I flatter myself, I have demonstrated what my patriotism would have proved, had I been destined to a country worthy of my sentiments. On this consideration alone I aspire to the honor of uniting to the name of Washington that of Vittorio Alfieri.

WASP EATER.

A few days since a fellow in the neighborhood of Frimly, named Fisher, whose gluttonous propensities have long since acquired him the name of the Cormorant, and undertook for a trifling wager, to eat a dozen live wasps, with their stings in them, and demolish two pounds of raw salmon, in the short space of ten minutes. This he achieved with comparative expedition, notwithstanding he was sorely perplexed over his first course. He afterwards offered to eat wasps by wholesale, at the rate of sixpence per dozen: this he continued doing till he had consumed nearly two dozen of these creatures, when his throat and mouth from their stings, became so dreadfully swollen and inflamed, that he was obliged to desist, in a state almost bordering on madness and suffocation. [London paper.

HORRORS OF WAR.

The following account is literally copied from the 11th number of the Annals of the Fine Arts, where it is inserted with perfect sang froid, as a thing of course. "The Corporal Major of the 2nd Life Guards, Hodgson, who we understand, was one of those exhibited at the Academy, was the only one of Mr. Hayton's models left alive at Waterloo. He had five models in the Life Guards in that battle—four of whom were killed, Shaw was one, and Daikin, the young man who sat for the groom, sleeping on his knees, in Macbeth, was another. The last time Daikin was seen, he was fighting, unhorsed with three cuirassiers, two of whom he killed at two cuts, dividing both their heads at the nose. He was found dying in the evening across a hedge, cut in ribbands. The first by Shaw, (as related by the third man from him, a corporal, who saw it,) was at a cuirassier who rode up: Shaw, being on higher ground waited calmly for him, and cleaved his head through his iron helmet, down to the jaw: the face of the cuirassier fell off as completely cut as a bit of apple.—This was the corporal's expression who related it. Shaw died in the inn-yard of La Haye Sainte, from exhaustion, and not on the enemy's ground, as some reported."—Match this, ye tigers, hyenas, boa constricters, sharks, crocodiles, and other monsters, if ye are able! Let it be engraven on the projected Waterloo column. [ib.

GAME LAWS.

By a return of the number of persons in custody, in England and Wales, for offences against the Game-laws, distinguishing those who have been committed under the Act 57 Geo. III. cap. 90, and specifying their respective sentences under the same, it appears, that on the 29th of January last, in 189 of the prisons, there was no person in custody nor any offence against the game laws; and that in 75 prisons there were then in custody for such offences 522; of whom 66 had been committed under the Act 57 Geo. I. cap. 99: of the latter number the sentence of transportation for 7 years was passed upon 9; of imprisonment for 2 years, on 20; for 18 months, on 6; for 1 year, on 22; for 6 months, on 12; for 3 months, on 5; for 2 months, on 2; and there remain for trial, 28.

HACKNEY COACHES.

Brewer, in his 'Beauties of Middlesex,' observes in a note, that 'It is familiarly said, that Hackney, on account of its numerous respectable inhabitants, was the first place near London provided with coaches of hire, for the accommodation of families, and that thence arised the term Hackney Coaches.—This appears quite futile; the word Hackney, as applied to a hireling, is traced to a remote British origin, and was certainly used in its present sense long before that village became conspicuous for wealth or population.' In 1637 the number of Hackney coaches in London, was confined to 50; in 1652, to 200; in 1654, to 300; 1662, to 400; in 1694, to 700; in 1710, to 800; in 1771, to 1000; and, in 1802, to 1100. In imitation of our Hackney coaches, Nicholas Sauvage introduced the fiacres at Paris, in the year 1650.

'The hammer-cloth is an ornamental covering of the coach box. Mr. S. Pegge says, 'The coachman formerly used to carry a hammer, pincers, a few nails, &c. in a leather pouch hanging to his box, and his cloth was devised for the hiding of them from public view."

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. against

Childs & Witherspoon, and Thomas H. Howland, Defendants.

The defendants, Childs & Witherspoon, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the statute and the rules of this court; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, upon affidavit, that the said defendants are not inhabitants of this District—on motion of the said complainant, by his counsel, it is ordered, that the said defendants do appear here on the 1st day of November term next, and answer the bill of the complainant; and that the other defendant, Thomas H. Howland, do not pay away, convey, or secrete the debts by him owing to, or the estate or effects in his hands belonging to the said absent defendants until the further order or decree of this court; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted for two months successively in one of the public newspapers published in Alexandria; and that another copy be posted at the front door of the court house of said county. A copy.

Was Committed,

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 3d inst. as a runaway, a negro man called BEN HENDERSON, supposed to be the property of George Thornton, of King George county. The said negro is about 50 years of age; 5 feet 6 inches high; bald head; and a shoemaker by trade. The owner is desired to come prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

ANDW. ROUNSAVELL, Jailor.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. WM. MASON.

Charles County, Md. June 1.

The editors of the National Intelligencer and Baltimore Federal Gazette will insert the above until forbid, and send their accounts to Port Tobacco for payment.

June 11 tf

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, asmooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bearskin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

I. T. STODDERT,

West Hatton, near Allen's Fresh Post-Office, Charles county, Maryland.
